BANQUET PROGRAM: FAB GAB

The Fab Gab (short for Fabulous Gabfest). The idea is to facilitate artists and designers meeting, showing their work and exchanging ideas. The limit from each artist will be 10 images. That way more artists will be able to show their images before we all doze off after dinner

HERE'S WHAT YOU DO AHEAD OF TIME

Choose the works you want to talk about. You can have a theme (or not), whatever pleases you. You can show 10 different works or 10 angles of one 3-D piece, or fewer than 10 images. Create digital images of your works. (This is hardest part for non-photographers --start as soon as possible -- get help from the photographers. Send your ten or fewer images by email to Aline Lotter at alotter@mac.com with FABGAB in the subject line. Do this at least 5 days before the banquet, that is, on or before midnight, May 31st.

HERE'S WHAT HAPPENS DURING THE PROGRAM

First, a screen comes down announcing the name of the artist who is responsible for the upcoming images. As the works are shown, the artist may comment or explain the individual images, or not! Scattered light applause at the end would be appropriate, giving the next artist a moment to collect his/her thoughts. Standing ovations would be inappropriate.

The purpose of this activity is to increase our familiarity with our colleagues' artwork and to get us talking about ourselves and our artwork (a selling exercise); incentivizing the creation of digital images of our work. If you are willing to participate in our FAB GAB, let Aline know right away so that she can get ahead of the work by creating the "slides" for the names. Also let her know if you want to include a title or theme on your name slide.
